

AIFI YOUNG: NEW BOARD APPOINTED FOR THE 2026–2029 TERM

Milan, 30 September 2026 – The AIFI Board of Directors met and appointed the new Board of AIFI Young, the group dedicated to young private capital professionals working at AIFI member organisations. The new Board will officially take office in October 2026 and will serve a three-year term, until October 2029. Its composition was determined following the votes cast by AIFI members, supplemented by appointments made by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the group's regulations. The Chairman of the new Board will be appointed at its inaugural meeting.

The new AIFI Young Board for 2026–2029 will consist of:

- Andrea Brambilla (AIFI) – Secretary General
- Maria Sole Bozzi (Algebris Investments)
- Alessandro Candido (Montefiore Investment)
- Gianmaria Cecere (Three Hills Capital Partners)
- Leonardo Ceriani (B4 Investimenti SGR)
- Antonella D'Amicis (Wise Equity SGR)
- Raffaele Gerini (CDP Equity)
- Fiammetta Mataloni (Nextalia SGR)
- Edoardo Munari (Ardian Italy)
- Francesco Padovani (Ambienta SGR)
- Marco Paoli (Generali Investments)
- Giovanni Putignano (Alternative Capital Partners SGR)
- Roberto Rinaldi (Armònia SGR)
- Eugenio Rocco (F&P Equity Partners)
- Alberto Zagarella (Doorway)

With a community of approximately 500 members, AIFI Young is now a point of reference for young private capital professionals. Through events and networking opportunities, the group has contributed over the years to building an increasingly strong and active network within the AIFI ecosystem.

The new Board will be tasked with continuing the work undertaken in previous years, promoting new initiatives for the benefit of the AIFI Young community and encouraging the involvement of younger generations in the Association's activities.

AIFI would like to thank the outgoing Board members for their work and their contribution to the growth of AIFI Young in recent years, while also welcoming the new members of the Board.

AIFI, the Italian Private Equity, Venture Capital and Private Debt Association, was established in May 1986 and is internationally recognised for its institutional representation and promotion of private capital activities. AIFI brings together financial institutions that regularly and professionally invest in unlisted companies, supporting their development and offering flexible debt instruments tailored to the needs of individual companies. The Association also brings together an extensive network of institutions, institutional investors and professionals interested in the development of the industry. In addition to representing its members and serving as a reference point for major analyses and research on alternative investments, AIFI plays an important role in promoting financial market awareness and knowledge.

AIFI Young brings together a community of approximately 500 young professionals under the age of 35 who work at AIFI member organisations and are active in the private capital sector. The group aims to foster the professional growth of its members through initiatives promoted by the AIFI Young Board in collaboration with AIFI, cross-sector activities with other organisations, and networking and social opportunities. Over the years, AIFI Young has contributed to building an increasingly strong and active network within the Association's ecosystem, becoming a point of reference for new generations of professionals in the sector.
